

INVITING YOUR FRIEND TO GO TO A FESTIVAL -2

Now, let's keep going. We will learn some common words that are often used when inviting your friend to go to a festival:

1. Take a drive (phrase): to travel, to go on a trip.

E.g. Let's take a drive.

2. Huge (adj): extremely large in size or amount; great in degree.

E.g. There is a huge crowd at the festival.

3. Interested (in somebody/something) (adj): giving your attention to something because you enjoy finding out about it or doing it; showing interest in something and finding it exciting.

E.g. I'm very interested in history.

4. Plenty (of something) (n): a large amount; as much or as many as you need.

E.g. There are plenty of fruits in the fridge.

5. Explore (v): to travel to or around an area or a country in order to learn about it.

E.g. As soon as we arrived on the island we were eager to explore.

6. Pick somebody up (phrasal verb): to go somewhere in your car and collect somebody who is waiting for you.

E.g. I'll pick you up at five.

Okay, in this part we will learn some common sentences that are often used when inviting your friend to go to a festival:

+ About questions:

- What are you going to do this weekend?

- Do you know that there will be a music festival on the beach this weekend?

- Would you like to go with me?

- What time can I pick you up?

+And the relating statements:

- I was thinking of taking a drive to the beach.

- I'm really interested in this music festival.

- We will go at around 8 o'clock on Saturday morning.