

Video: What should we bring?

Now, let's keep going. We will learn some common words that are often used when we talk about what we should bring to a festival:

- hurry up (phrasal verb): to do something more quickly because there is not much time

e.g. Hurry up! We're going to be late.

- flashlight (n): a small electric lamp that uses batteries and that you can hold in your hand

e.g. Don't forget to bring a flashlight.

- battery (n): a device that is placed inside a car engine, clock, radio, etc. and that produces the electricity that makes it work

e.g. Can you replace the batteries for me?

- towel (n): a piece of cloth or paper used for drying things, especially your body

e.g. Give me a bath towel, please.

- medication (n): a drug or another form of medicine that you take to prevent or to treat an illness

e.g. Are you taking any medication?

- (just) in case (phrase): because of the possibility of something happening

e.g. You won't need to call - but take my number, just in case.

Okay, in this part we will learn some common sentences that are often used when we talk about what we should bring to a festival:

- Do you have a flashlight and batteries?

- Let's have a look at the things we need.

- We have sleeping bags and a tent there.

- We need some raincoats and towels as well.

- We should also bring some medications just in case.

- Don't forget to bring our tickets!